22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time
August 31st & September 1st, 2019

The seeker of honor obtained not that which he coveted, but suffered a defeat, and busying himself how he might be loaded with honors, is treated with dishonor.

(St John Chrysostom, Patriarch, Doctor of the Church)

"Whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and whoever humbles himself will be exalted."

(Luke 14:1, 7-14)

Humility

"It was pride that changed angels into devils; it is humility that makes man as angels."
(Saint Augustine)

Humility is the virtue that helps us to see that God is our Lord.

Humility defeats the sins of Pride and Vainglory by putting God's will first not ours.

Humility is not thinking less of yourself but knowing what you can truly do or cannot do.

Humility is listening to others with respect because one may learn from them.

Humility is also the virtue of those who make great personal sacrifice for others.

Humility is being able to see the beauty of the simple things in life.

Humility is fighting fear, uncertainty and despair by trusting God.
