“When we exercise not the management of our wealth according to our Lord’s pleasure, but abuse our trust to our own pleasures, we are guilty stewards.”

(St Theophylact of Ohrid)

“You cannot serve God and wealth.”
(Luke 16:1-13)

We thank you for your continuing generosity.

Our Parish serves the English-speaking Catholic Community of the Archdiocese of Quebec. We wish to be a welcoming community to all in need of one, to open our doors to all who need a family or the brotherly love of Christ. For more information, please contact the Office.

We have the Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament before the Saturday Mass. Between 14:30 and 15:30, the Blessed Sacrament will be exposed and Father Lussier will be available to hear Confessions or for private consultations. Confessions are also heard before each Mass upon request. Our families and our Congregation are in great need of prayer; please come and join our Pastor for Adoration.

✚ Catholic Women's League: We are back in swing with plans for an enjoyable and productive fall season ahead. Please save the date of Oct. 5th from 1-4 pm for our CWL fall harvest event. Bring some root vegetables to decorate the altar. More details to come. There are five ways to join and participate in CWL with varying degrees of responsibility. Please contact our President, Marie White, at 418-254-0510 or mariewhite.qc@gmail.com to join or with questions or prayer requests.

First Reconciliation & First Communion, Confirmation and RCIA (Adult Baptism & Confirmation) programs will start again in September. It is possible to register online on our website or by calling the Office.

The parish is organizing our annual potluck brunch on Sunday October 6th after the 10:00 Mass.

We are asking all parishioners who wish to attend the brunch to bring their favorite hot or cold dish as their contribution to the potluck.

Sign-up sheets are available at the back of the church. Please bring or make food for six to eight persons, and if possible, please identify the food which you are going to bring for the brunch.

Gospel text (Lk 16,1-13): Jesus told his disciples, «There was a rich man whose steward was reported to him for fraudulent service. He summoned the steward and asked him: 'What is this I hear about you? I want you to render an account of your service for it is about to be terminated'. The steward thought to himself: 'What am I to do now? My master will surely dismiss me. I am not strong enough to do hard work, and I am ashamed to beg. I know what I will do: I must make sure that when I am dismissed, there will be some people to welcome me into their house'.»

So he called his master's debtors one by one. He asked the first who came: 'How much do you owe my master?'. The reply was: 'A hundred jars of oil'. The steward said: 'Here is your bill. Sit down quickly and write there fifty'. To the second he put the same question: 'How much do you owe?'. The answer was: 'A thousand measures of wheat'. Then he said: 'Take your bill and write eight hundred'.»

The master commended the dishonest steward for his astuteness. For the people of this world are more astute in dealing with their own kind than are the people of light. And so I tell you: use filthy money to make friends for yourselves, so that when it fails, these people may welcome you into the eternal homes. Whoever can be trusted in little things can also be trusted in great ones; whoever is dishonest in slight matters will also be dishonest in greater ones. So if you have not been trust-worthy in handling filthy money, who could entrust you with true wealth? And if you have not been trustworthy with things which are not really yours, who will give you the wealth which is your own? No servant can serve two masters. Either he does not like the one and is fond of the other, or he regards one highly and the other with contempt. You cannot give yourself both to God and to Money».
