Baptism of the Lord, January 10th 2021

The baptism of Jesus is considered an important manifestation of God in the person of Jesus, another epiphany. Jesus' baptism inaugurates his mission. Surprisingly, on this the last day of the Christmas season the Gospel does not tell a story from Jesus' childhood. Instead the Gospel reveals Jesus' relationship to God: the Son of Mary and Joseph is also God's own Son. We believe that through Baptism we are also made children of God.

And a voice came from heaven, "You are my Son, the Beloved; with you I am well pleased."
(Mark 1.7-11)

Closing of the churches from Saturday January 9th to Monday February 8th 2021

By order of the government we have to stop all liturgical celebrations (Mass, etc.) from Saturday January 9th to Monday February 8th 2021. We are only allowed to celebrate Funerals (25 persons max.) and do regular administrative tasks (Funerals preparation, baptism certificates, etc.). You can phone for more information or if you need to talk to the pastoral staff. Also, our Pastor is presiding Mass every day in the church alone without parishioners for all the intentions printed in the Bulletin.

Pope Francis proclaims Year of St. Joseph

Vatican City, Dec 8, 2020. Pope Francis announced a Year of St. Joseph on Tuesday in honor of the 150th anniversary of the saint's proclamation as patron of the Universal Church.

The year begins Dec. 8, 2020 and concludes on Dec. 8, 2021, according to a decree authorized by the pope. The decree said that Francis had established a Year of St. Joseph so that "every member of the faithful, following his example, may strengthen their life of faith daily in the complete fulfillment of God's will."

Please note that important Amendments to the CWL Constitution and Bylaws need to be read before and then voted on at our AGM. Date and details to follow. Bless you all, stay well.

«You are my Son, the Beloved, the One I have chosen»

Today, with the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord, the Christmas cycle is over. The Gospel says that John had «appeared in the wilderness, preaching a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of the sins» (Mk 1:4). People went out to see and hear him, to confess their sins and to be baptized by him in the Jordan River. And among those people Jesus also appeared to be baptized.

At Christmas we have seen how Jesus appeared to the shepherds and the magi who, coming from the East, worshiped Him and offered Him their gifts. In fact, the coming of Jesus to the world is to manifest God's love that saves us.

And there, in the river Jordan, a new manifestation of Jesus' divinity was made: heaven was opened and the Holy Spirit descended towards Him as a dove and the voice of the Father was heard: «You are my Son, whom I love; with you I am well pleased» (Mk 1:11). In this case, it is the Father of Heaven and the Holy Spirit who made it manifest. It is God himself who reveals who is Jesus, His beloved son.

But it was not a revelation only for John and the Jews. It was for us too. Jesus himself, the beloved Son of the Father, who manifested to the Jews in the river Jordan, continually manifests to us every day. In the Church, in prayers, in our brothers, at the Baptism we have received that has made us children of the same Father.

Let us ask, therefore: - Do I recognize his presence, his love in my life? – Do I live a true relationship of filial love with God? Pope Francis says: «What God seeks from us is a relationship like that between a father and child. God give us a caress and tells us: I am by your side».

In the midst of our struggles and difficulties, the Heavenly Father also tells us: "you are my son whom I love; with you I am well pleased".
