Most Holy Trinity Sunday, May 26th, 2024

This feast of Holy Trinity invites us to consider what we believe about God, who has revealed himself to us in the Trinity, one God in three Persons. In the reading. Also, Jesus commissions his disciples to baptize in the name of the Trinity; this is one of the clearest attestations for Baptism in the name of the Holy Trinity found in Scripture. As we read this Gospel, we are reminded that this central mystery of faith is meant to be lived. As baptized Christians, we share in the life of the blessed Trinity and seek to invite others to share in God's love. (Loyola Press)

And Jesus came and said to them, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you." (Matthew 28.16-20)

Celebrating the 95th birthday of Mary McPeak

Sunday, May 26th, 2024 will be a very special day for Mary McPeak! She will reach the milestone of being 95 years old on this day! Her children would like to invite all of you, the people in the parish, to come downstairs in the hall after the 10:00 a.m. mass on May 26 to celebrate this special birthday! We will serve a birthday cake and coffee. It will be a pleasure to have all of you with us!

Filipino Community Mass

On Saturday, June 1st, at 7:00 pm, we will have a Mass organised by the Filipino Community. All are welcome.

Gratitude

On Sunday June 9th after the Sunday Mass, we will have a cake in order to thank Richard for his services here in the parish for the past few years. Beginning next week, a basket will be placed in the atrium of the church if you want to express your appreciation with a card and a little gift.

“Make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the holy Spirit”

Today, the liturgy invites us to worship the Most Holy Trinity, our God, who is Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. One only God in three Persons, in whose name we have been baptized. By the grace of Baptism, we are called to participate in the life of the Most Holy Trinity down here, in the darkness of faith, and, after death, in eternal life. Through the Sacrament of Baptism, we have been made partakers of the divine life, becoming children of God the Father, brothers and sisters in Christ, and temples of the Holy Spirit. In Baptism, our Christian life began, receiving the vocation to sanctity. Baptism makes us belong to the One who is supremely Holy, the "three times Holy." (cf. Is 6:3).

The gift of sanctity received in Baptism calls for fidelity to a task of evangelical conversion that must always guide the life of God's children: "This is the will of God, your holiness: that you refrain from immorality." (1 Thess 4:3). It is a commitment that affects all the baptized. "All the faithful of Christ of whatever rank or status, are called to the fullness of the Christian life and to the perfection of charity." (Second Vatican Council, Lumen Gentium, n. 40).

If our Baptism was the true entrance into the holiness of God, we cannot be content with a mediocre, routine, and superficial Christian life. We are called to perfection in love, as Baptism has introduced us into the life and intimacy of God's love.

With deep gratitude for the benevolent plan of our God, who has called us to participate in His life of love, let us worship and praise Him today and always. "Blessed be God the Father, and His only Son, and the Holy Spirit, for He has shown mercy to us" (Entrance Antiphon of the Mass).

Prayer to the Holy Trinity

Glory be to the Father, Who by His almighty power and love created me, making me in the image and likeness of God.

Glory be to the Son, Who by His Precious Blood delivered me from hell, and opened for me the gates of heaven.

Glory be to the Holy Spirit, Who has sanctified me in the sacrament of Baptism, and continues to sanctify me by the graces I receive daily from His bounty. Glory be to the Three adorable Persons of the Holy Trinity, now and forever. Amen.

A Daily Offering Prayer to the Trinity

Eternal Father, I offer You everything I do this day: my work, my prayers, my apostolic efforts; my time with family and friends; my hours of relaxation; my difficulties, problems, and distress, which I shall try to bear with patience and faith.

Join these, my gifts, to the unique offering which Jesus Christ, Your son, renews today in the Eucharist.

Grant, I pray, that, enlightened by the Holy Spirit and united to the sacred Heart of Jesus, my life this day may be of service to You and to Your children and help consecrate the world to You. Amen.
