Sunday's Reflection

"I will love him and reveal myself to him."

Today, Jesus, just as he did with his disciples, says farewell as he returns to the Father to be glorified. It seems that this saddens the disciples who still look at him with a physical, human gaze, one that believes, accepts and clings only to what they see and touch. This feeling, which also exists today in many Christians, prompts the Lord to assure them that "I will not leave you orphans" (Jn 14:18), for He will ask the Father to send us "another Advocate" (Helper, Intercessor)— "the Spirit of truth" (Jn 14:16-17).

Furthermore, although the world will not "see" Him, "you will see me, because I live and you will live" (Jn 14:19). Thus, trust and understanding in these words of Jesus will awaken love in the true disciple, which will be clearly shown in "keeping his commandments" and "observing them" (cf. Jn 14:21). And even more: whoever lives that way will be loved in the same way by the Father, and He - the Son - will love his faithful disciple and manifest Himself to him (cf. Jn 14:21). How many words of encouragement, trust, and promise come to us this Sunday! Amidst daily concerns - where our hearts are overwhelmed by the shadows of doubt, despair, and fatigue for things that seem to have no solution or have come to a dead-end - Jesus invites us to always feel His presence, to know that He is alive and loves us, and at the same time, promises to those who take the firm step of living His commandments to reveal Himself in the fullness of new, resurrected life.

Today, Jesus is revealed to us as alive and present, in the teachings of the Scriptures we hear, and in the Eucharist we will receive. May your response be that of a new life surrendered in living His commandments, particularly that of love.

Mother's Day Prayer

Dear God, today we give thanks for the amazing and wonderful gift of mothers. They are the backbone of families and the foundation of society. Without mothers, the world would be a darker and less caring place. We are grateful for the tireless sacrifices that mothers make every day, the sleepless nights, the countless hours of work, and the unwavering love and devotion they give to their families. Their selflessness and strength inspire us and fill us with awe.

Lord, we ask You to bless all the mothers in the world today. Give them the strength to persevere through the challenges they face, the wisdom to guide their children in the right path, and the courage to overcome any obstacle that may come their way. May their hearts be filled with joy and their minds with peace, knowing that their efforts are not in vain and that their love and care make a difference in the lives of those around them.

We thank You for the gift of mothers, and we pray that You continue to bless them with Your love and grace. Amen.
